24th International Film Festival of India

1697. DR. BAPU KALDATE : Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that the 24th International Film Festival of India has proved to be a market for the film industry;

(b) if so, the details of the business done during the period;

(c) whether Government have received some complaints from the film industry and others about the mismanagement and poor quality of films; and

(d) if so, what action Government propose to take to see that such things are not repeated in future ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI K. P. SINGH DEO) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) National Film Development Corporation (NFDC) signed a contract with Singapore TV for two films for US $ 5000. The buyer has also evinced their interest in some more films and the deal is expected to be finalised shortly. The Corporation also signed a letter of Intent for three films for US $ 17,000 with an Italian Company. Negotiation were held with buyers from South Africa and Europe for major TV Networks in these territories and deals are likely to be finalised in near future. Negotiations with French buyers is likely to lead to sale of a few Satyajit Ray's films. Seven films were purchased by NFDC during the festival from countries such as Australia, USA, UK, etc. NFDC also sold some films to some Indian buyers. The other agencies which participated in the film market have also reported satisfactory business.

(c) No, Sir. However, the Government has seen some general observations about the mis-management of the Festival in some Press reports without any facts to substantiate.

(d) Improvement is a continuous process. Every big organisational event gives some new experience. The endeavour is to learn from the past experience and to take appropriate steps in the successive festivals.
